HON. MARCUS GARVEY ON DISARMAMENT FIASCO

Speech on Disarmament Conference Delivered at Liberty Hall, New York, U. S. A., November 6, 1921

"This conference on disarmament, I have said, is all a joke, and every one of them is going there to see what can be gotten. Japan to see what she can get out of America; America to see what she can get out of France; England to see what she can get out of Japan; Italy to see what she can get out of England, and the greatest vagabond will come out with the big stick. Everybody knows that all sensible statesmen know that. They do not want any conference on disarmament, because you must arm to a certain extent. Swords are in heaven to keep the angels in good order. So since human nature is what it is, the world cannot afford to disarm. But do you know what they are getting together for? Not so much disarmament; they are getting together to form a pact by which they can subdue and further oppress the weaker peoples who are not as strong as themselves to demand a place in this conference now to be held.

THE NEGRO TODAY

"I told you during the war in my speeches throughout the length and breadth of this country and through my writings in The Neg ro World week by week in 1916 it was planned in England that the Negro should pay the cost of the war. You will remember (some of you) my saying that several years ago it was the determination in Europe that Africa was to be exploited to pay the cost of the war and Negroes everywhere were to be used to supply the source of revenue by which the bankrupt nations would be able to declare themselves once more solvent. Since peace was declared—since the armistice was signed—those of you who have seen the conduct of statesmen in Europe, of governments and of subsidized commercial agents, will recall that great demands have been made and are being made to commercialize the raw and mineral products of Africa,, and by the spoils gained out of exploiting Africa they hope to reimburse themselves of the billions of dollars lost in the war of 1914 to 1918.

THE AIM OF EUROPEAN STATESMEN

"It does not take the vision of a seer; it does not take the vision of a prophet to see what the future will be to us, as a race, through the ambitions of the present-day statesmen of Europe. They feel that they have a divine right because of the strength of arms; because of their highly developed power to go into any part of the world and occupy it, and hold it, if that part of the world is occupied by weaker peoples. The statesmen of today believe that might makes right, and until they get that feeling out of them, until they destroy that spirit, the world cannot disarm. They fail to take into consideration, they fail to take into account, that there are 400,000,000 black men in the world today and that these 400,000,000 people are not going to allow anybody to infringe upon their rights without asking the question why."

Great Local Conventions of Negroes to Be Held by All Local Divisions of the Universal Negro Improvement Association for One Week Beginning Sunday, August 15, and Ending Sunday, August 22

The Executive Council of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, taking into conideration the great financial and economic conditions of our membership, and realizing the valuable aid rendered by our divisions at the recent Detroit Convention, desires to return its sincere thanks and appreciation to the Great Architect of Mankind for His manifold blessings and watchful care over us in the months through which we have come, and humbly beseeches a continuance of same in the future, that we might worthily serve our grand and noble race, and instil in the minds of Africans at Home and Abroad the ideals of nationhood. Appreciative of your past loyalty and praying for your whole-hearted support in our every endeavor, we are in command to inform you that there will be no International Convention this August, 1926, but each Division, Chapter and Branch is requested to convene a Local Convention and so stimulate interest, and make your community ring with the message of One Cod! One Not being unmindful of our leader's great sacrifice and present imprisonment for the cause which he so nobly espouses, we rededicate our lives, fortunes and sacred honor to the service of our race, believing that you will cooperate and do your best in the fight for freedom. We have the honor to be.

Yours fraternally,

Executive Council.

Improved Pluko Hair Dressing is fairly taking the country by storm as more and more men and women, like Miss Wells, are finding how easy and pleasant it is to use this delicately fragranced preparation which melts at the temperature of the scalp; soothing the itching of dandruff and quickly doing away with this trouble; making the hair soft and glossy and easily arranged; and stimulating its growth, so it soon becomes long, straight and abundant.

LOCAL U. N. I. A. CONVENTIONS

HE Executive Council of the Universal Negro Improvement Association has issued a call for local conventions instead of an international gathering of the association for the year 1926, the conventions to convene August 15 and continue until August 22. A program has been outlined covering each day's sessions, as published in the last issue of The Negro World, signed by Honorable Fred A. Toote, acting President-General, and Honorable W. A. Wallace, Secretary-General. "Each division, Chapter and Branch is requested to convene a local convention and so stimulate interest and make your community ring with the message of 'One God, One Aim, One Destiny'," says the call.

be impressed by the fact that all of the vital interests of the Negro incarnation in the person of some other one. And why should Chrispeople are covered by it. A careful reading of the subjects for each tians, or those nurtured in the Christian doctrine, "look to the East day's sessions will convince the reader that great good must result country, Eastward," among a non-Christian people for the reincarfrom the interchange of thought and determination based upon such nation of "Jesus, the King of the Jews," and who came to save "the interchange. The international feeling will animate the members lost sheep of the house of Israel?" It is all a mystery. The white because the subjects to be discussed and acted upon, while local in races are not of the "house of Israel" and do not claim to be, but character, must have general application to the whole membership they have grabbed all that "Israel" stands for in the Bible and strive and affect the Negro race as a whole. The conventions will be widely to hog it all, to the exclusion entirely of the Hamites and Shemites separated in point of place but as one in point of time and subjects who have part in the promises, while the white races cannot identify to be considered. The high thought that we have "One God! One Aim! One Destiny!" will animate the membership as if it were meeting as one body in an international convention instead of as in many local conventions meeting separately. All thought in all of the local | TT E wish to emphasize the fact that the local conventions, conventions will be centered upon the same subjects, and their expression will be common and mutual because of the sameness, and the desired results will be wrought out by the same token.

These local conventions should be generally and largely attended. The great interests of the Universal Negro Improvement Association never appealed more to the Negro people than they do today, and the usefulness of the association was never more needed by the Negro people, who are struggling everywhere for the right of selfassertion and determination in their own life and living. The white races are everywhere asserting their divine right to subjugate and rule and exploit the darker races of the world, and unless these latter make a determined stand against this presumption and arrogance business initiative and development, and this development requires toxin anti-toxin. The injections do not light wines and beer."

Now, then, let each member strive to make the local conventions memorable in the splendid history of the Universal Negro Improvement Association. The protes-A paper published every Saturday in the interest of the Negro Race and the tants are so divided among themselves to be without one head and so confused in their beliefs as to have as many doctrines as there are denominations among them. The Catholics are losing everywhere their claim to dominate the spiritual as well as the temporal life of the people, the upheaval in Mexico being the latest protest against Robert Todd Lincoln such domination, while the Protestant Christians are not only divided in their denominations but have come to a radical misunderstanding about matters of doctrine; one part standing for fundamentalism and the other part for modernism. The result is confusion in the whole Christian world.

Patiently, hopefully, their material wants ministered to by the application of modern science, 2,000 men and women await what they expect to be the reincarnation of the "world teacher" in the body of a young Brahmin, J. Krishnamurti.

Only their eyes, fastened intently, almost fanatically, upon the young Indian as he sits enthroned on a rough-hewn Druidic seat in front of the flickering fire, betray the eagerness with which the little army of disciples waits for the inspired words that shall announce the miracle.

Foremost among those who sit and watch the young Indian as the fire plays on his delicate features is Mrs. Annie Besant, in her youth the image of Lord Byron with all his heady temperament, but now a bowed woman of seventy-nine with white,

It was she who took Krishnamurti as a boy and reared him as a son. In her heart burns most brightly the faith that the "world teacher"-known to Christians as Christ-will make his second coming to earth known through the lips of the young Brahmin just as, more than nineteen centuries ago, in the belief of many Theosophists, he spoke through the mouth of a young carpenter named Iesus.

OUR WOMEN and WHAT THEY THINK-Edited by Mrs. Amy Jacques Garvey

MONG those who are receiving posthumous publicity and honors is Gertrude Bell, who spent the greater portion of her life expanding England's control over the warlike Arabs. Although born of wealthy parents and highly educated, she forsook London society and traveled to Persia, then to Syria and other Eastern countries, studying the customs and languages of the Abreast of Current Thought Impeople, mixing among them intimately in the disguise of a native woman, and reporting to the British Intelligence Office the progress of her wanderings and intrigue. Miss Bell's achievements are not singular. Other English women, such as Lady Stanhope, Lady Blunt, Dorothy Mills and others too numerous to mention, have been engaged in the same pursuits for their country, each trying to serve where men could not; for it is well linearing that the fall meeting. Says Race Persecution Strengthens U. N. I. A.

To the Editor of The Negro World: In my opinion, Americans are helping Negroes to get what they want from the mere fact that we are so dependent and worthless (some of us) we had been given equal rights and privileges under the other fellows' government, we never would have thought we are being confronted by jimcrowism, segregation, lynching, etc., etc., some of us have hitherto failed to see the necessity of an independent government for Negroes.

I really don't know if I am making a mistake, but every case of ill treat-ment I read of meted out to the Negroes I feel that it helps to strengthen the members of the U. N. I. A, and gives them the impulse "go forward." Negroes need real object lessons ere they can see what the U. N. I. A. stands for.

The sooner all Negroes realize that for us to get what we want is to do what the early Britons did to get their Pilgrim Fathers did to get their United States of America, and so on, it's all

British 'Young Bloods' Find

Oxford Bags Are Ancient LONDON.—Some of the younger "bloods" of Britain who still cling to their Oxford bags as being quite up to date articles received a shock upon learning from T. A. Joycc, an explorer, who has been visiting the Maya tribes, that these "bags" are centuries old.

Mr. Joyce says: "I found that some of the colored natives, descendants of the Mosquito Indians, out here wear an enormous loose garment like 'Oxford bags.' They are mostly white and pale yellow and some are salmon

The younger generation of women were also surprised to learn from the same source that Chucunaque Indian women and the San Blas women for generations have used the ceremony of hair cutting as marking a transition stage from girlhood to womanhood. "The hair," wrote Mr. Joyce, "after the girlhood stage is cropped so close that it is exactly the same as that which is known now in England as the Eton

200 Buffalo Attack Americans in Africa

*WASHINGTON, July 28.—An attack by a surging herd of 200 buffalo on members of the Smithsonian-Chrysler expedition now in Africa was described in letters from Dr. William M. Mann director of the National Zoological Park and head of the expedition, to the Smithsonian Institution and made public today.

The expedition was in the Lake Tanganyika region. The party was on foot when the herd began to approach at high speed. When the charging buffalo were 300 yards away a member of the scientific party fired a rifle. This failed to halt the advance and members of the party turned and ran, paus-ing momentarily to discharge their rifles. The buffalo split then into two sections, permitting the scientists to fight their way to safety through mud and heavy underbrush. Dr. Munn reported capture of six young gnu calves, which are to be brought back to the United States.

Missouri Celebrates Emancipation

WASHINGTON, July 31,-This week marks the climax of the movement fostered by the Kansas City Business Men's League to present an industrial exhibit in connection with its emancination celebration on August 4. The State Negro Industrial Commission has appointed two Negro delegates from each county in Missouri to represent their respective localities at the emancipation celebration. More than 20,000 Negroes are expected to attend. Albert George of Chicago; Robert S. Cobb, Executive Secretary of the Ne-gro Industrial Commission; Mayor Albert Beach, of Kansas City, and other notables of the State and elsewhere, will comprise the principal orators during the occasion of the celebration.-C. The Black Race owes its gratitude for this service, which has aroused and electrified race consciousness to the articles and orations of Hon. Marcus Garvey, brilliantly compiled and elegantly ar-ranged by Lady Amy Jacques Garvey. Within a comparatively short time, Lady Amy Jacques Garvey has just issued the second volume of "Philosophy and Opinion of Marcus Garvey, or Africa for the Africans."

The book needs no recommendation on our part as its very title betrays a great truth and secret which have

HON. F. A. TOOTE'S ADDRESS Hon. Fred A. Toote, Acting President-General, wound up the proceed ings. His speech dealt mainly with the New York situation, where the enemies of the race were reaping what they sowed. He explained the details of the latest events leading up to the coming expulsion of the rebellious George Weston from Liberty Hall and promised the membership that the Executive Council would not retreat one step from the firm stand creants.

The speaker then invited questions from the audience, stating that inquiries of whatever nature were welcome. No questions were forthcom ing, and the meeting was brought to a close with the singing of the Ethiopian National Anthem.
