Garvey Warns: Stubbornness of the Negro Will Ruin Him

Dr. Moton Says White People Unfair to U.S. Negroes but— He Still Truly Loves Them!

He Wouldn't Go to Africa—More Civilized Than Africans!

Dr. Robert R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Ala-bama, spoke to an audience of white and colored people assembled in the historic "Saint Pauls" church, corner Ninth and Grace streets here on Tuesday night of this week.

The speaker was introduced by Dr John Garland Pollard, Governor of Virginia, who stated that Dr. Moton, by his sane leadership had endeared hy his sane readership and vindence of himself to, and won the confidence of all racer. Covernor Pollard also pledged his support to all movements which will help the Negroes and imrove relations between the two races We wante briefly some of the high. We would, however, rather go to the very roots of the evil in leading and guiding the destinies of thousands to land.

The people that spousored the colonization of Liberia by the American Negro slaves who were expatriated, were pious missionary folks.
We wonder if they thought more of these returned slaves than they did of the heathens whom they were going to convert. These returned slaves Wisdom makes no distinction of the color of skin.—A modern were only a background, a stepping stone in their proselytizing career. And this has been truly the curse both upon the native heathen Liberian ceives. And this has been truly the curse both upon the native heathen Liberian and the returned Christian ex-slave and his progeny. Let us explain.

The psychology of the returned slaves has been such that they hold the native heathen in utter contempt, because the latter proudly clings to this heathenism. The natives will never be satisfied with any mere modification of the pass law; it must be destroyed root and branch; it is a Czarist institution, intensified in its rigor a hundred and one times. It will do our white champions good to know these facts. The Africans are becoming more and more impatient of the pass laws, and only a spark is needed to light a fire that will make our Prussian Militarist Minister of Justice look very stupid indeed. The insults that have been heaped on the Bantu people of late will not be forgotten. Nemesis will come and then this bragging, arrogant and insolent politician will be called upon, at the deeds and misdeeds.
